Camino Inglés, from Ferrol to Santiago - Spain

7 days, PRICE FROM € 550

The "Camino Inglés", also known as the English Way, is an ancient route traveled by pilgrims mainly from Northern Europe who arrived in Spain by sea, docking at Ferrol. Along this captivating 120 km journey to Santiago de Compostela, you encounter a myriad of stories and a heritage rich in meaning.

Ancient Pilgrim coming from Northern Europe would dock at Ferrol, arriving in Spain by the sea, and walk this ancient route to get to Santiago de Compostela: the English Way boasts rare natural beauty, with the serene landscapes of rural Galicia, out-of-time villages and the vibrant colors of the Spanish countryside. It's the perfect trip for those who want to reconnect with themselves - you won't find the crowds of the French Way and will have a more intimate experience, with more chances to get in touch with the territory and its people.

Route

Day 1 Arrival in Ferrol

Starting in magical Ferrol menas soaking in its mysterious atmosphere, walking around the Magdalena district with its 18.th century buildings and the the Naval Museum and San Felipe Castle, with its geometric layout and magnificent stonework, and the impressive hydraulic architecture of the dockyards - a unique example in Europe.

Day 2 From Ferrol to Pontedeume, 31 km

The adventure starts in Curuxeiras, Ferrol's port. the first gem of the day is the San Martiño de Xubia Monastery, built in the 8th century - legend tells that between the temple and Neda there was a tunnel allowing monks to cross the river without being seen. Several highlights await - the pastires and bread of Neda, the climb to Monte Marrazòn, possibly a swim in Magdalena beach. Pontedeume - today's destination - is well known for its Torre de los Andrade and one of the longest medieval bridges in Europe.

Distance: 31 km

Elevation Gain: +239/-233 m

Day 3 From Pontedeume to Betanzos, 21 km

A challenging, but gorgeous stage awaits - plenty of ups and downs, the Galician Forest with its tranquil atmosphere, trails immersed in nature, and suburban roads in Betanzos, which awaits us protected by its ancient walls.

Distance: 21 km

Elevation Gain: +493/-479 m

Day 4 From Betanzos to Hospital de Bruma, 28,3 km

Charge up with a good breakfast, as the longest stage of the journey lies ahead of you: challenging, long, but beautiful - a walk through forest and meadows, laurel forests and small villages. Today's destination is Hospital the Bruma, named after the ancient hospital that would welcome pilgrims in this area.

Distance: 28,3 km

Elevation Gain: +928/-564 m

Day 5 From Hospital de Bruma to Sigüeiro, 24,8 km

A flat stage through mountains, forests, and farmland, passing through picturesque villages, each with its church. The route follows the Mandeo River before arriving in the medieval village of Sigüeiro, where you can rest and get ready for next stage.

Distance: 24,8 km

Elevation Gain: +243/-408 m

Day 6 From Sigüeiro to Santiago de Compostela, 16,5 km

Today's route - flat and almost completely asphalted - passes through several small villages before arriving in the outskirts of Santiago de Compostela. Enjoy the panoramic view of the city before reaching the Plaza del Obradoiro - an emotion you will never forget.
